

BOOK LIST

Ms. Martin – 8th Grade Literacy

The book list for the eighth-grade Literacy course contains six texts. Students are expected to provide personal copies for all texts WITH THE EXCEPTION of our first text, The Diary of Anne Frank (play version). This text will be read in class using the student textbooks. Electronic, paper, or library-rented versions of the texts are acceptable. I understand circumstances that may hinder being able to supply a text; for these circumstances, please contact me in advance so that we may plan for an alternative supply.

1. The Diary of Anne Frank (play version) by Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett
2. The House of the Scorpion by Nancy Farmer
3. American Born Chinese by Gene Luen Yang
4. Enrique's Journey (young adult adaption) by Sonia Nazario
-  5. In the spring semester, students will be placed into book groups and read one of the following texts. The text selection will be based off student preference in consideration with class-grouping placements. Students and parents will be notified of what text to supply once book groups have been determined.

[A] A Long Way Gone by Ishmael Beah	[C] Luna by Julie Anne Peters
[B] Speak by Laurie Halse Anderson	[D] Strong Inside by Andrew Maraniss
6. The Outsiders by S.E. Hinton
