

Name: _____
Date: _____

READING GUIDE: ACT 1, SCENE 2 [SELECTION B]

The Diary of Anne Frank

PART A. DIALOGUE & CHARACTERIZATION

1. Look at the dialogue between Anne and Peter on pg. 865-866. Using the dialogue as textual evidence, identify two opposing characteristics between Anne and Peter.

ANNE		OPPOSITE TRAITS	PETER
Textual Evidence	Characteristic		Characteristic	Textual Evidence

2. Using your chart above as evidence, make a prediction about the future relationship between Anne and Peter.

I predict _____ because _____
_____.

3. In your opinion, do you think similar or opposite personalities make for better relationships?

I think [similar / opposite] personalities make for better relationships because _____
_____.

Name: _____
Date: _____

READING GUIDE: ACT 1, SCENE 2 [SELECTION B]

The Diary of Anne Frank

PART A. DIALOGUE & CHARACTERIZATION

1. Look at the dialogue between Anne and Peter on pg. 865-866. Using the dialogue as textual evidence, identify two opposing characteristics between Anne and Peter.

ANNE		OPPOSITE TRAITS	PETER
Textual Evidence	Characteristic		Characteristic	Textual Evidence

2. Using your chart above as evidence, make a prediction about the future relationship between Anne and Peter.

I predict _____ because _____
_____.

3. In your opinion, do you think similar or opposite personalities make for better relationships?

I think [similar / opposite] personalities make for better relationships because _____
_____.

PART B. DIALOGUE & PREDICTIONS

1. On pg. 868, Mr. Frank says, "There are no walls, there are no bolts, no locks that anyone can put on your mind." Make a prediction about how this perspective will influence the family's activities in the annex?

I predict _____ because _____

_____.

2. Also on pg. 868, Mr. Frank reminds Anne of the "certain advantages" that living in hiding brings hers. If you were Anne, what "certain advantages" would living in hiding bring you? List two below.

a. _____

b. _____

3. On pg. 870, Anne discusses the fate of Miep and Mr. Kraler if anyone discovers the family in hiding. Knowing the severity of that fate, why do you think Miep and Mr. Kraler still made the decision to help the families?

I think _____

_____.

PART B. DIALOGUE & PREDICTIONS

1. On pg. 868, Mr. Frank says, "There are no walls, there are no bolts, no locks that anyone can put on your mind." Make a prediction about how this perspective will influence the family's activities in the annex?

I predict _____ because _____

_____.

2. Also on pg. 868, Mr. Frank reminds Anne of the "certain advantages" that living in hiding brings hers. If you were Anne, what "certain advantages" would living in hiding bring you? List two below.

a. _____

b. _____

3. On pg. 870, Anne discusses the fate of Miep and Mr. Kraler if anyone discovers the family in hiding. Knowing the severity of that fate, why do you think Miep and Mr. Kraler still made the decision to help the families?

I think _____

_____.