

Name: _____

Date: _____

READING GUIDE: ACT 1, SCENE 3 [SELECTION B]

The Diary of Anne Frank

Directions: In this selection, we start to see the contrasting personalities of the characters. From their interactions, we can make predictions about how their personalities may. For each character below, (1) first identify a character trait, (2) then pull a piece of dialogue that exemplifies the trait, (3) after, make a prediction about how the personality trait could lead to conflict in the annex.

| | TRAIT | DIALOGUE | CONFLICT PREDICTION |
|---------------|-------|----------|---------------------|
| ANNE | | | |
| PETER | | | |
| MR. VAN DAAN | | | |
| MRS. VAN DAAN | | | |

Name: _____

Date: _____

READING GUIDE: ACT 1, SCENE 3 [SELECTION B]

The Diary of Anne Frank

Directions: In this selection, we start to see the contrasting personalities of the characters. From their interactions, we can make predictions about how their personalities may. For each character below, (1) first identify a character trait, (2) then pull a piece of dialogue that exemplifies the trait, (3) after, make a prediction about how the personality trait could lead to conflict in the annex.

| | TRAIT | DIALOGUE | CONFLICT PREDICTION |
|---------------|-------|----------|---------------------|
| ANNE | | | |
| PETER | | | |
| MR. VAN DAAN | | | |
| MRS. VAN DAAN | | | |

