READING GUIDE: ACT 1, SCENE 3 [SELECTION D]

The Diary of Anne Frank

PART A. In this selection, the annex takes in another member, Mr. Dussel. When the characters find out about his arrival, they react in different ways. In the chart below, read the reaction in the first column. After, (1) identify the speaker of the reaction. Then, (2) make an inference about that character's personality based off the given reaction.

Reaction	Who said it?	What does this reaction reveal?
"The only thing I feel... there's so little food as it is... and to take another person..."
"He can have my bed. I can sleep on the floor. I wouldn't mind."
"I'll come in here with you and Mother, and Mr. Dussel can have my bed."
(In response to her room being given to Mr. Dussel) "That's right. We could do that."
(In response to being told Mr. Dussel is moving in) "In here? You're joking."
(In response to acknowledging the food shortage) "I think it's fine to have him."
