

Name: _____

Date: _____

---

READING GUIDE: CHAPTER 5

Enrique's Journey

Directions: Complete the questions below by answering with complete and thorough eighth-grade responses! Use evidence from the text when appropriate.

1. Why does Enrique choose not to pray like the other train riders do?

---

---

---

---

2. Name the four towns the train travels through that are known for their kindness.

1. _____	3. _____
2. _____	4. _____

Name: _____

Date: _____

---

READING GUIDE: CHAPTER 5

Enrique's Journey

Directions: Complete the questions below by answering with complete and thorough eighth-grade responses! Use evidence from the text when appropriate.

1. Why does Enrique choose not to pray like the other train riders do?

---

---

---

---

2. Name the four towns the train travels through that are known for their kindness.

1. _____	3. _____
2. _____	4. _____

3. The author briefly describes Enrique’s experiences befriending other migrants on the journey. Explain the pros and cons Enrique describes in these relationships.

---

---

---

---

4. As Enrique sits on the edge of the Rio Grande he begins to think of his mother and how near he is to reaching her. Explain why Enrique views his mother as a “mystery” and the affect this thought has on him.

---

---

---

---

Discussion Question: In this chapter we learn about the people in towns like Veracruz that give to the migrants. How are the migrant’s journeys changed with the help of these people?

3. The author briefly describes Enrique’s experiences befriending other migrants on the journey. Explain the pros and cons Enrique describes in these relationships.

---

---

---

---

4. As Enrique sits on the edge of the Rio Grande he begins to think of his mother and how near he is to reaching her. Explain why Enrique views his mother as a “mystery” and the affect this thought has on him.

---

---

---

---

Discussion Question: In this chapter we learn about the people in towns like Veracruz that give to the migrants. How are the migrant’s journeys changed with the help of these people?