

Name: _____

Date: _____

READING GUIDE: CHAPTER 8

Enrique's Journey

Directions: Complete the questions below by answering with complete and thorough eighth-grade responses! Use evidence from the text when appropriate.

1. The book discusses how once reunited, mothers and children first try to hold on to a fairytale idea of how they should feel toward each other, but then their true feelings surface. On the lines below, identify four different reasons why true feelings surface. Think: Why does the fairytale idea go away?

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

2. Compare and contrast how Maria Isabel and Belky handle the news of Enrique's arrival.

Name: _____

Date: _____

READING GUIDE: CHAPTER 8

Enrique's Journey

Directions: Complete the questions below by answering with complete and thorough eighth-grade responses! Use evidence from the text when appropriate.

1. The book discusses how once reunited, mothers and children first try to hold on to a fairytale idea of how they should feel toward each other, but then their true feelings surface. On the lines below, identify four different reasons why true feelings surface. Think: Why does the fairytale idea go away?

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

2. Compare and contrast how Maria Isabel and Belky handle the news of Enrique's arrival.

3. Enrique and Lourdes have both good and bad moments together. Describe how they interact with each other when they are having good moments. Then, describe how they interact with each other when they are having bad moments.

4. What news does Enrique learn from Maria Isabel at the end of the chapter? What decision do Enrique and Maria Isabel make regarding their future?

Discussion Question: As readers, we see Lourdes and Enrique struggle in their relationship together. Do you think Enrique is justified in how he feels towards his mother? Why or why not? Do you think Enrique is justified in how he treats his mother? Why or why not? If you could say anything to Enrique right now, what would you say? Why would you say it?

3. Enrique and Lourdes have both good and bad moments together. Describe how they interact with each other when they are having good moments. Then, describe how they interact with each other when they are having bad moments.

4. What news does Enrique learn from Maria Isabel at the end of the chapter? What decision do Enrique and Maria Isabel make regarding their future?

Discussion Question: As readers, we see Lourdes and Enrique struggle in their relationship together. Do you think Enrique is justified in how he feels towards his mother? Why or why not? Do you think Enrique is justified in how he treats his mother? Why or why not? If you could say anything to Enrique right now, what would you say? Why would you say it?