

Name: _____

Date: _____

ACTIVE & PASSIVE VOICE: CHANGING VOICE (AGAIN)

Grammar Review #3

Directions: First, identify each sentence as being in the active or passive voice. Then, rewrite the sentence by switching the voice.

1. Horace polishes his furniture and silverware with luncheon meat.

2. Tiny space aliens landed their ship on Kirby's head to explore his toupee.

3. After their performances, severe heatburn is suffered by fire eaters, and extra-strength antacids must be taken by them.

Name: _____

Date: _____

ACTIVE & PASSIVE VOICE: CHANGING VOICE (AGAIN)

Grammar Review #3

Directions: First, identify each sentence as being in the active or passive voice. Then, rewrite the sentence by switching the voice.

1. Horace polishes his furniture and silverware with luncheon meat.

2. Tiny space aliens landed their ship on Kirby's head to explore his toupee.

3. After their performances, severe heatburn is suffered by fire eaters, and extra-strength antacids must be taken by them.
